

THE HUNTINGTON LIBRARY & GARDENS

With Lifelines/Timelines Exhibit

The gardens are typically in full bloom at this time of year

A New York Club Trip Wednesday, May 13, 2020

Featuring over 15,000 kinds of plants from around the world, the gardens have various themes including the popular Rose Garden, Japanese Garden and Chinese Garden. Marvel at a magnificent collection of rare books, manuscripts, and famous European and American art including Gainsborough's "The Blue Boy," Mary Cassatt's "Breakfast in Bed," a Gutenberg Bible, an illuminated manuscript of Chaucer's "The Canterbury Tales," and a First Folio edition of Shakespeare.

View the special Lifelines/Timelines exhibition which explores the march of time by comparing the age of selected California juniper bonsai alongside benchmarks in the Huntington's 100-year history. We will have approximately five hours to explore the gardens, art galleries, gift shop and visitor center with lunch on your own at the various eateries.
